

A Complete Index to

The Saturday Review of LITERATURE

Volume 28, January 6 - December 29, 1945

The following index to THE SATURDAY REVIEW OF LITERATURE is divided into four sections: Articles, Departments, Reviews, and Authors. The Articles and Department are indexed by title followed by the author's name and the reference number. The Reviews are indexed by the title of the book reviewed, followed by the author's name and the name of the reviewer in parentheses. The Authors Index gives the name of the author followed by the title of his writing and the nature of the contribution designated in parentheses; as (letters) (poem) (review). All writings not thus designated are feature articles. The reference numeration indicates the month and day of publication followed by the page number. Thus Mar. 24-14 means that the indexed article is to be found on page 14 of the March 24th number.
